Committee Accepts Gas Raise

Earl Head Indicted

Earl Wayne Head, 60 years old, 804 Twenty-First Street, was indicted on a charge of assault with intent to murder Monday by a Randall County grand jury.

Head is charged in connection with the early morning shooting a week ago Monday of Mrs. Thelma R. Martin, 42, in front of her home at 1401 Sixth Avenue.

Mrs. Martin was quoted by police as having said Head shot her.

Relatives this week said Mrs. Martin was shot in the left side of the throat. The bullet coursed through the muscles of her back and is now lodged in the left lung.

Mrs. Martin has lost the sight in one eye and is partially paralyzed in the left arm.

Head, arrested at his home about an hour after the incident, denied any knowledge of the shooting.

Also indicted Monday on a charge of assault with intent to murder was Emmett Leon Wilkerson, 4200 Washington in Amarillo. Wilkerson was charged in connection with the shooting of Louis Monroe Johnson of 4624 Western. Johnson is Wilkerson's father-in-law.

Seven other indictments were returned Monday.

Prisioner Sentenced

Michal Horodnyckyi accepted a life sentence in state prison at noon Wednesday after being found guilty of murder last week by a Randall County jury.

Horodnyckyi, 47 years old, was found guilty of the April 6 slaying of Mrs. Cora Samuels, 62, of 506 West 38th in Amarillo.

Judge E. E. "Gene" Jordan passed sentence after the defendant indicated he would not appeal the conviction.

Would Cost City Users 13 Percent

Pioneer Gas Company and West Texas Utilities Committee has reached an agreement on a 13 percent burner tip rate hike for the 56 cities represented by the committee.

This includes Canyon.

Canyon city commission is expected to act on the matter at a meeting at 5 o'clock today in the community building.

The agreement probably forestalls an appearance by the committee and the gas company before the Railroad Commission to resolve the request.

On. Aug. 19 the company had requested a rate hike of 19.4 percent in costs to Canyon residential and commercial consumers.

A gas company spokesman said this would cost the average consumer about $1 a month. If the 13 percent hike proposed is accepted the increase should be little more than 75 cents a month to the average user.

The application stated in the original request for 19.4 percent increase that it would be willing to accept an increase of 16.2 percent if the city were to act within 60 days of the application.

Acting City Manager George Loudder said that if the 13 percent increase is accepted, the base price for the first 2,000 cubic feet of gas will be $2.10 with the cost per 1,000 cubic feet graduated downward for volume users.

The new rate is slated to go into effect on billings after Nov. 15.

Loudder said the last rate increase granted Pioneer was July 17, 1967.

After the increase request in August of this year, the 56 communities involved pooled resources and leadership to form the West Texas Utilities Committee.

"I think these cities showed a lot of wisdom in getting together," Loudder declared this week.

Also on the agenda for Thursday's meeting of the city commission is discussion of whether the city will participate in providing ambulance service inside the city limits.

Last week the commission instructed City Attorney Elton Cox to prepare a contract by which the city could share in the cost of providing ambulance service.

Under the terms of the contract LaGrone Funeral Home would receive $562.50

Producer Visits In Carlile Home

BY TROY MARTIN

Lyn Jank says there is a kinship between the quarter horse and the strength and endurance of American men.

Miss Jank, visiting Canyon from Rome, wrote and will produce "The Sale Is On" starring John Carlile.

It is a story of a man of modest means who has a good horse.

Miss Jank spent the week end with the Carliles. She says she hopes a great deal of the picture is filmed in Palo Duro Canyon. "It is perfect country for my story," she declared.

A native of Laredo, she has been fascinated with the Southwest and especially the American quarter horse most of her life.

"They pulled caisons for George Washington in the revolutionary war and the wagons that came west," she related with enthusiasm. "They were a part of this country's history for 350 years and for 440 yards you just can't outrun them."

She said the people in Europe are also taken with the quarter horse.

"They find a romantic attachment between the spirit and endurance of the quarter horse and the strength and endurance of American men," she declared. "They realize that American men

WT Nurse Program Gets Green Light

The Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, this week approved a baccalaureate nursing program for West Texas State University.

The program will be in cooperation with the Amarillo Hospital District. This was the final step needed before the school can be undertaken.

The plan calls for a gradual formation of the WTSU School of Nursing over the next four years. Amarillo Hospital District is to contribute $2,000 during 1970-71; $25,000 in 1971-72; and $75,000 in each of the next two years.

Students in the school of nursing may become registered nurses and at the same time earn a bachelor's degree. The school also will provide Licensed Vocational Nursing programs.

The hospital district includes Northwest Texas Hospital and the Psychiatric Pavillion. It currently operates a three-year diploma school of nursing.

The WTSU plan will allow diploma students to continue their education at WTSU without loss of credits. Amarillo Hospital District instructors will be used in the WTSU program.

Recruiting of students will begin in 1971 according to present plans.

Dr. Emmitt Smith, WTSU vice president for research and development, said the program will be state financed by the 1974-75 school teram.

Time Change Set Sunday

Canyon and the rest of the state will be returning to Central Standard Time at 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

Clocks should be turned back one hour at that time.

First Conference Game

Lobos To Visit

Canyon's Eagles will host the Levelland Lobos Friday night in Buffalo Bowl in their first District 1-AAA encounter of the season.

Game time is 7:30.

The Lobos are picked to win and Coach Dunny Goode says his charges will have to be at peak performance or the Lobos are likely to do just that.

The Lobos come to Buffalo Bowl sporting a 3-2 record.

They have blanked both Lockney and Littlefield and only last Friday defeated Jefferson High of El Paso 32-21 in a non-conference game in that border city.

The Lobo Quarterback is Craig Hudson. He is a good passer and a volatile runner. He throws mostly to split end Terry Billingsly.

Best Lobo runner this year is Fullback Roy Gregory, a 171 pound junior. Steve Gray at 210 pounds is the Lobos' most formidable lineman. He is a senior tackle.

The Lobos deploy from a wishbone T. Sometimes they slot a back and run the sweep and throw from it to either side.

The Lobos moved up from District 3-AAA and this is their first season in 2-AAA.

There are some bright spots for the home towners this week. Teddy Trice who has been out all season with a strained knee will see some service Friday night. Rick Edmondson, left halfback, will be at full strength for the first time this year.

Bill Moore is showing steady improvement. Coach Goode says he is the best blocker on the Eagle squad. Allen Bedell, injured in the Caprock game, probably will be back in the lineup this week.

Allen is an outstanding pass receiver and a good blocker.

Coach Goode is trying for a first Friday night. In the seven years the Eagles have played AAA ball they have yet to win a conference opener.

Coach Goode thinks his charges have a good chance.

"We're going to open up our offense a little and do some things with it now that we are acclimated to it a little bit," Coach Goode de-

The junior class sponsors a magazine sale drive each year to raise money for the class projects including the Junior-Senior Prom. The juniors will knock on every door in Canyon in an effort to reach their $8,000 sales goal.*

School Magazine Draws Board Fire

A magazine being used as a teaching aid in Canyon Junior High School was criticized at a meeting of Canyon school board Tuesday night.

Dr. Dudley Moore, president of the board, brought a Sept. 14 edition of the magazine "Scope" to the board meeting.

He took offense at two articles and at least one advertisement in the magazine. He said his daughter brought the magazine home from school.

"It upset me and it upset my daughter," Moore declared.

One of the articles which offended the board president was entitled "Whose Flag?" The article presented several different views on patriotism.

Dr. Moore said a youngster reading the article would be left not knowing what to think about it.

Another article which offended the board president was entitled "The Other Foot". It is in the form of a play telling of a white man going to a planet inhabited by black people.

"We'll see who gets lynched, who rides the back

Buffaloes Meet Aggies Saturday

West Texas State University's Buffaloes saw their football winning streak snapped at three games Saturday night by the North Texas State Eagles, 11-10, and started to work Monday in hopes of starting another win string.

The Buffaloes host arch rival New Mexico State University at 8 p.m. Saturday in Buffalo Bowl. Both the Buffs and the Aggies are trying to bounce back from defeats. New Mexico downed the Aggies, 24-17, Saturday in Albuquerque.

The West Texas-New Mexico State series goes back to 1941 and has been continuous since 1951. The Buffaloes hold a 16-6-1 edge in the series.

Coach Joe Kerbel pointed to the good play of North Texas and errors in several key departments as the reasons for the 11-10 score Saturday night.

"We were unable to stop the curl passes all night long and made several careless mistakes on defense which resulted in 15-yard penalties," he said. The head Buffalo coach also pointed to the five fumbles as key mistakes. The Buffs lost four of those fumbles two of them deep in North Texas territory.

Kerbel was high in his praise of the defensive unit during a goal line stand late in the game. North Texas, leading by the final margin, had a first and goal situation at the Buffalo one-yard line. Four tries at the Buff line resulted in a loss of one

Farm Legislation

Uproar Over Bill

The question is still "whatever happened to that farm bill?" but U.S. Rep. Bob Price celebrated leaving his sickbed in Washington Tuesday by issuing an optimistic statement on when it might be passed.

The new farm bill has been passed by the House and Senate, re-hashed in a conference committee, and re-passed by the House, but Senate action was delayed Oct. 13 by the election recess.

"Senators Mansfield and Scott have said it's a good bill and should be passed," said John Jameson, Price's legislative counsel. "It should be passed within several weeks of the senate's reconvening November 16th."

The importance of the bill to local farmers is emphasized by Donald Lloyd of the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"We are already way behind," Lloyd said. "We should have had the wheat allotments out way before now. They needed to know three months ago what their allotments are."

Lloyd said over planting beyond the farmer's allotment is not the problem in this case.

"From what we understand they probably will not have to plow up," he said. "The question is whether they have planted enough."

Lloyd said that under the old bill a farmer could fail to plant his full allotment for three years in a row before losing his history (crop allotment.)

"The new bill, I believe, makes it one year," he said. "It would not be a problem during an ordinary year beccause farmers plant an excess for grazing. But this year it has been so dry the grazing prospects are no good at all and many farmers are just planting the minimum needed to get by."

"The Secretary of Agriculture is aware of this problem," Price said Tuesday. "He is not going to allow anyone to lose out on the benefits of his program through no fault of his own."

A statement by Lloyd, "we will have to live with the new bill for a year before we know what it is and in the end it could be similar to what we've always had," was borne out by the congressman.

"The new farm bill produced by the House-Senate conferees maintains government assistance to our nation's farmers for the next three years at about the same level as is currently being provided," Price said.

Price said this assistance "is both needed and war-

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

The race for 181st District judge is still the hottest thing in Randall and Potter County politics.

Both Carroll Brown and Judge Don Dean are out shaking hands all over the place. I look for it to be a horse race.

Look for Rhett Plank to run a stronger race than anyone had supposed. The conservative vote in Randall County has a tendency to go Republican and unless this year is an exception almost any candidate on the Republican ticket will run well.

Rhett's disadvantage is that he is young. But then all of us have to start somewhere.

He lost his last big case to the district attorney. But then the district attorney has a distinct advantage. He can pick his cases and if he thinks one is weak he just doesn't go to court with it.

If a district attorney is doing his job at all he will win 95 percent of his cases.

George Dowlen has some things going for him that undoubtedly make him a candidate hard to beat. He has prosecuted three narcotics cases in the past few months and got stiff sentences on all of them.

He prosecuted a murder case only last week and got the defendant life imprisonment. Dean Bridges drew a stiffer sentence in Randall County than he did in Potter County although he was prosecuted on the same charge there as here.

The district attorney's race is going to be an interesting one to watch the night of Nov. 3.

I don't know who did Oofie Abraham's signs but if I were Oofie I'd ask for my money back.

The pictures are so gray you can't see them from the road and you can hardly read the printing on the sign itself.

I have a feeling that Oofie is in trouble and that Sherman's campaign is gathering steam. Oofie — one of the most likeable guys in the Texas Panhandle — knew from the first that he had to sell himself as a small town boy and picture Sherman as the man from the big city.

Sherman has managed to sell himself as a Borger boy and from what I can find is going across with the people in the hinterland.

If Sherman is elected it will be a milestone for Amarillo. Amarillo hasn't been able to elect anybody to anything of any importance since Marvin Jones served in Congress.

Grady Hazlewood is from Canyon. Bob Price and his predecessor, Walter Rogers, both are from Pampa and Eugene Worley, who preceded Rogers in Congress, hails from Shamrock.

I like Lloyd Bentsen, Jr., as a man. He visited in my office for a quarter of an hour the other day. But when I get into the voting booth I'll probably vote for George Bush.

Spiro Agnew, whom I admire a great deal, sold me on Bush when he appeared in Amarillo. He pointed out that a vote for Bentsen is a vote to keep the McGoverns, the Kennedys and the Fullbrights in chairmanship of some of the most important committees in the Senate.

And I can't stomach the McGoverns, the Kennedys and the Fullbrights.

No matter how sophisticated one group gets in dealing with another it takes only a short time for things to even out.

Border patrol officers recently began using dogs trained to sniff out marijuana at the Mexican border.

Smugglers almost immediately began tying small bags of the stuff on arrows and shooting across the Rio Grande.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

The popular philosophy that men prefer security to freedom has always been the tyrant's excuse for "making people happy instead of free."

The philosophy is correct on one score at least: It is impossible to be both free and secure. But which really brings happiness — security or feedom?

The other side of the door of freedom has always been responsibility. People who refuse to fulfill their responsibilities usually forfeit their freedoms.

Personal bankruptcies have skyrocketed because too many people have been unable to accept the responsibility of easy credit. More regimentation is surely in order in this area. However, many of our current ills are the direct result of too much regimentation.

Beginning with the New Deal, our government has increasingly taken away our freedoms ostensibly to provide us with security.

Under the pressure of the draft, crowded housing, social "security," and an ever-increasing tax burden, many Americans are attempting to drop out of society. The filthy, impoverished, depraved hippie communes do not offer much security, but they do grant freedom from the pressures of government regimentation.

The farmer has traditionally occupied the lowest rung on the economic ladder. Yet even in our materialistic society, what is the average man's ambition? To have a little piece of land of his own. Why? Because of the freedom it promises.

Actually, the farmer works longer hours at dirtier work for less pay than any other worker in the world. Yet in spite of increasing government regulations and decreasing profits, there is still a measure of coveted freedom on the farm.

Cattlemen usually go broke at least once every 20 years. Why then is ranching still the most attractive occupation in America? It is the one business not yet controlled by the government.

Did American pioneers brave hunger, loneliness, and savage Indians for security — or for freedom?

The Truman Administration assured the Germans that only rigid government controls could save post-war Germany from catastrophy. But the Germans had their fill of "security"; they chose freedom. And after more than 20 years of free enterprise, West Germany probably has the soundest economy of any nation in the world.

Child labor laws, educational requirements, and Aid to Dependent Children were all designed to give children security. Yet mental illness among children has increased 150% in the last 10 years, and suicide is the No. 2 killer of adolescents.

Granted, man cannot enjoy both freeddom and security; they are mutually destructive. Prisons offer security; do they provide happiness? What man is competent to decree what will bring happiness to another? Should not each responsible citizen have the right to seek his own happiness and provide his own security?

The policy of denying freedom to all men to provide security for the irresponible minority has never been successful. When will men learn that no government can give anything to its citizens until it first takes it away from them? Do we really want to exchange our precious blood-bought freedom for a theoretical security?

Ralph Frost Awarded National FFA Award

Ralph Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frost of Happy, received the American Farmer Degree recently at special ceremonies held during the 43rd National Convention of the Future Farmers of America, in Kansas City, Missouri.

Frost was one of 471 FFA members nationwide to receive the degree, which is the highest degree of membership in FFA. Only about one percent of all FFA members ever receive the degree.

The American Farmer Degree is presented only by the National Organization of the Future Farmers of America to members who have demonstrated exceptional agricultural and leadership ability. State FFA associations are permitted to submit one candidate for the first 500 members, or two for the first 1,000 plus one candidate for each additional 1,000 members. The 471 FFA members awarded the American Farmer Degree represent the best of more than 430,000 FFA members now enrolled in the nation's 8,175 high school vocational agriculture departments.

FFA members begin as "Greenhands" and after one year of membership may be advanced by the local chapter to the degree of "Chapter Farmer." The third degree, that of "State Farmer", is presented by the State FFA Association and is limited to no more than two percent of the State's FFA membership in any one year. Only Students who have earned the State Farmer Degree are eligible for the American Farmer Degree.

Cancer Society Meets In Ft. Worth

Mrs. C. E. Thompson and Mrs. Gene McGlasson, Jr. will represent the Randall county Unit of the American Cancer Society at the Twenty-fifth Division Annual meeting of the society, held this week at the Sheraton Ft. Worth Hotel.

Mrs. Thompson, president, is the voting delegate for the Randall County Unit and will join more than 300 Texas Delegates during the two-day session.

The meeting began yesterday with a board and membership orientation and was followed by group sessions for Service and Rehabilitation, Public and Professional Education, Campaign and Public Information.

Richard Lyons, Houston, chairman of the Board of the Texas Division, said the sessions are designed to help the volunteer leadership to expand programs wherever they live.

Delegates will review the programs made in cancer control during the past 25 years, including the society's stepped up emphasis on clinical research, a new program concerned with the prevention, diagnosis and management of cancer in man. The purpose of the new clinical research program is to speed scientific findings to the patient. The National Society awarded over $20,000,000 in research grants last year with over $1,000,000 in Texas institutions.

Twenty-six committee, membership, district and board meetings are scheduled during today's sessions. The Division Board of Directors, attending to the business of the Society, will elect officers, Director-at-Large, and Executive Committee members. Delegates will also hear prominent Texas physicians present cancer cases and discuss rehabilitation of the cancer patient after treatment.

The highlight of the meeting will be a dinner address by Doctor A. Hamblin Letton,

Buffaloes In Garden Next Year

West Texas State has been invited to play Long Island University as part of a basketball doubleheader in Madison Square Garden next year.

Coach Dennis Walling said Tuesday that Roy Rubin, LIU head coach and athletic director, invited the Buffs to play in the famed New York sports arena Dec. 11, 1971. Two New York City teams will play the other game, Rubin said.

The Blackbirds will meet the Buffaloes at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum on Jan. 24 to complete a home-and-home arrangement for the 1971-72 season.

"The game in Madison Square Garden is a tremendous boost to our basketball prestige," Walling said. "Of course, Long Island has long been one of the outstanding names in college basketball."

West Texas State last appeared in Madison Square Garden during the 1968-69 season when it played in the National Invitational Tournament.

The Buffs met LIU twice during the era of the "world's tallest" teams in the early 1940's and lost both games.

The game in the Garden comes at the end of a rugged trip at Weber State Dec. 7, 1971 and Utah State Dec. 9, Walling said.

West Texas Statewill hold another intrasquad scrimmage in the fieldhouse from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday. The public is invited.

FOR YOUR STATE SENATOR . . . .

Malouf 'Oofie' Abraham

. . . he knows how!

A SMALL TOWN NATIVE, from Canadian, "Oofie" has always worked, as most Panhandle residents do.

HE HAS SOLD CARS and drygoods, run a cafe on a 12-hour schedule, operated an insurance agency, been in farming and cattle raising and in the oil and gas business. He has served as mayor of Canadian.

BY PLAIN, DIRECT work he has earned modest business success. He is able to be a full time senator.

"OOFIE" KNOWS FIRSTHAND what the people of the Panhandle need from Austin ---and he knows the worth of a dollar. He respects your tax dollars--- so much that he has turned back more than $19,000 he could have spent in expenses as a State Representative.

HE HAS DONE THIS while being an effective Legislator. "Oofie" doesn't go for frills at taxpayers' expense.

HE IS A FAMILY MAN with three grown children. One son is a Canadian physician; one a Dallas banker and his daughter is a Stinnett school teacher.

of street cars, who gets segregated in shows," one of the leading characters in the play greets the news of the white man's arrival.

"Let's go find my guns and some rope," he says in another place.

Glenn Hughes, social studies teacher in junior high school, said he and his colleagues have carefully screened teaching aids used and have "trash canned" some. He said he had not seen the particular issue of the magazine in question.

"That play is something else," commented Board Member Joe Gill.

Superintendent Jerry Jacobs said material can often be good or bad depending upon the way it is presented by the teacher. He said it might be wise to call a meeting with the teaching staff to discuss it.

Several high school youngsters at the meeting said they thought the magazine should not be used in junior high school but that it would be all right for use in high school.

Superintendent Jacobs told the board that with new programs Rex Reeves Elementary School is becoming crowded. He said two storage rooms and one book room are being used for class rooms at the present time.

The school now has a kindergarten with 20 pupils. These are youngsters who are believed to have some learning disabilities and are being prepared for first grade next year. He said that in five or six years a kindergarten for all youngsters down to 5 years old will be mandatory.

He discussed with the board the possibility of changing attendance zones in order to shift some elementary students from Rex Reeves to Gene Howe where there is more space.

The proposed zone line between the two elementary school goes along the north edge of Palo Duro Canyon, then along McCormick Road, jogs to include Mescalero Park, from there to the E-Way, north on the E-Way to Sundown Lane and from there west to the corner of the school district.

Jacobs said this move would take about 128 students out of Rex Reeves and put them in Gene Howe. This would free four rooms at Rex Reeves.

Members of the board discussed building two or three portable class rooms about 28 by 36. These would be built by the building trades class and could be used on any campus where the need might arise.

Jacobs said they could be constructed economically.

The project received board approval with estimates and plans to be prepared by the vocational trades class.

Two new teachers were hired. Mrs. Jane Hensley was employed to teach emotionally disturbed children and Mrs. Betty Melton was hired to teach second grade.

The board approved a choir trip to the Bucaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi in May.

Members of the board also agreed to file suit on several persons whose school taxes are delinquent.

have that quality of working hard and running hard."

Miss Jank wrote the story around John whom she picked as the star when she talked to him at Ruidoso Downs in July of 1969 when she got the idea for the story.

"John, by the very life he has led is perfect for the role," Miss Jank declared. "I don't think — especially after having met his family — that any other man could tell the story as well as he."

Guy Madison will also have a starring role in the film.

"Guy is an old pro," Miss Jank related. "When he first heard about John he threw a caniption fit. He black balled it entirely. He did not think anyone other than a pro could depict what he wanted.

"Then he met John in Houston in August. John with Doug Raines, publicity and promotions man, arrived in Houston," she went on. "I had planned a big campaign to get Guy to accept John.

"He took one look at John and has pushed him ever since."

Miss Jank reiterated that she got the idea for the story while visiting Ruidoso Downs.

"I felt the power of the quarter horse and the poeple involved," she said. "It was a long time before I had a chance to begin active work on it but I couldn't get the idea out of my mind. I kept in touch with John and Doug."

She said she was encouraged by William Glass, Jr., and his wife, Dottie. Glass is interested in a Swiss Bank and has arranged financing for the picture. Bill is from Denver and Dottie from Oklahoma and although they have been in Europe 17 years they are still interested in the Southwest and the quarter horse.

"They will come to Texas soon to meet John, Guy and Doug," Miss Jank related.

Not only will Glass finance the film, he will do the musical score and Dottie, an actress, will appear in it.

Directing "The Sale Is On" will be Hans Ruesch, a Swiss, who already has had a successful career in his field. He has written many novels which were made into screen plays. One of his plays starred Anthony Quinn and Peter O'Toole and another starred Kirk Douglass.

He is partial to vast lands.

"He found out about the quarter horse story and immediately said he wanted to direct the film," Miss Jank declared.

"The Sale Is On" is being produced by Miss Jank for world-wide distribution. It is a low-cost film budgeted at $500,000.

Miss Jank says she believes that this is the day of the low budgeted film and the unknown actor. She hopes to prove her theory with her new venture.

Miss Jank is the daughter of an oil man and although a native of Texas she moved around a great deal as a young girl. For the past 16 years she has made her home in Rome.

She is a free lance writer and in the past she did magazine articles involving international oil companies until she turned to fiction. She has done a number of short stories and some novelettes. She published one novel in England.

She has just finished another novel which is presently under consideration for publication by Doubleday. This is the story of her grandmother who was widowed at 23 and made a living for her four children by running boarding houses.

"I just woke up one morning and wrote a story and have been writing ever since," said Miss Jank, who has had no formal training in the writing field.

Farm. . .

Whether the new bill is good or bad is hard for local officials to determine, since they have not seen a copy of it.

"We have not been notified of the provisions of the new bill," Lloyd said. "Our agency does not give us any information until the bill becomes law. This leaves us in the dark when everyone has heard rumors and no one is certain what is happening."

Lloyd said that "farming has progressed to the point where you have to plan your operations about 12 months in advance."

The wheat referendum, postponed from July 13 to January 15, will probably not be held if the Senate can pass the new bill before the first of the year.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 requires that any year the supply justifies it the Secretary of Agriculture must proclaim marketing quotas for wheat. Once he proclaims the quotas they are subject to a referendem, requiring approval of two-thirds of the nation's wheat farmers before the marketing quotas go into effect.

"We would have had voting ballots in the mail October 9 but we had not heard anything so we couldn't do anything," Lloyd said. "The fact that they haven't acted on the bill has certainly caused several problems for farmers and for the administration."

Price urged anyone wishing further information on the new farm bill to contact his office.

The congressman said he had produced amendments that were defeated in committee that would have allowed farmers to use set-aside portions of their land for grazing purposes, because of the extreme dry conditions in the region.

Halfback Rocky Thompson tallied one time to push his season scoring total to 54 points for five games. He has rushed 86 times for a net 542 yards.

Quarterback Ed Holwig hit on six of 13 passes for 103 yards to increase his season total of 37 completions in 62 tries for 538 yards. Robert Jackson caught three for 50 yards and moved to within one reception of team leader Daryl Wynn. Jackson has 10 pass receptions and Wynn, who failed to catch a pass in a game for the first time this year, has 11.

The Aggies, who will bring a 2-4 record into Saturday's clash, have one of the nation's more exciting runners in Ron "Po" James. He had gained 2,473 yards in two previous seasons has rushed for 387 net yards this fall.

James shares the tailback duties with roommate Jesse Mims, who has rushed for 293 yards.

Quarterback Rhett Putman, who guided the Aggies to a near-victory over the Buffaloes last year in a regionally televised game in Buffalo Bowl, has completed 54 of 122 passes for 820 yards and eight touchdowns. The slick signal-caller led the Aggies to a score in the fading seconds against the Buffs last year to make the score, 17-16. He then threw a pass on a two-point conversion try and had a receiver wide open, but the receiver dropped the ball.

Split end Al Barnes leads the Aggies in receptions with 16 for 301 yards. Tight end Phil Corley has 15 catches for 183 yards. James is among the nation's leaders in kickoff returns, having 405 yards on 14 returns.

Middle linebacker Mike Alcott and defensive end George Wells have been the defensive standouts for the Aggies this fall. Guards John Edmondson and Chuck Herndon have led the offensive line play.

The Aggies have wins over University of Texas at Arlington, 35-7, and Northern Arizona, 57-13. They have fallen to Colorado State, 29-9; SMU, 34-21; University of Texas at El Paso, 21-14; and New Mexico.

Festive Foods To Cook Now, Freeze Till The Holidays

Festive breads and cakes that can be baked in tin cans then frozen until needed for the Holidays are becoming popular in Canyon.

The different sizes of tin cans give an interesting shape to the food and the cans, which are greased and floured may be either saved or thrown away after use. If the bread is sticking to the bottom, a can opener can easily solve the problem. By removing the bottom of the can, the bread or cake may be pushed out through the top, leaving a perfectly shaped round cake to be served.

Some Holiday recipes to try either in tin cans or loaf pans are featured below.

Cranberry Pound Cake

2 tsp. baking powder
¾ tsp. salt
1 c. butter or margarine

¾ c. chopped cranberries
½ c. finely chopped pecans

Combine flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter; add sugar gradually, creaming until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Add flour alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Add flavoring, cranberries and nuts; mix well. Bake in greased coffee cans or tube pans at 375 degrees for 1 hour.

Old-Fashioned Pound Cake

Cream butter thoroughly; gradually add sugar. Cream until light and fluffy. Mix baking powder with flour and eggs alternately until all have been added. Add flavoring. Bake in coffee cans or 2-10 inch tube cake pans for one hour at 325 degrees.

Moore Studies Vietnamese Drama

BY CAROL CRAIN

To William A. Moore, II and Shakespeare, "All the world's a stage," and that includes the dramatic battlefield of Vietnam where specialist Moore is stationed.

The theatre history major graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1968. Prior to that time he attended Canyon High School and received numerous accolades for his fine performances in district, regional, and state acting competitions.

This time specialist Moore's role is different from any other he has ever played, the discipline more rugged, the stakes higher. However, the actor son of William A. and Margaret Moore is making the best of his situation and is studying Vietnamese theatre in his off-duty time.

In an on base interview, Moore stated that, "Essentially there are two types of theatre indigenous to Vietnam. There is Cai Luong, the more popular form and there is Hat Boi."

The scholar has attended Cai Luong performances along Saigon's Great White Way, but he prefers Hat Boi.

"It's really a specialized kind of opera," he said of the latter. "As far as the general public is concerned it's fairly unpopular," he continued. "It's really sort of a dying art form. It's not a great way to make a living and the younger actors aren't interested."

Specialist Moore, who speaks four languages, graduated first in his class from the Defense Language Institute at Ft. Bliss, in a 47-week Vietnamese course. He also received his basic training at Ft. Bliss. Upon graduation in 1969, he was assigned to the 2nd Civil Affairs Company. He is an interpreter with the 1st Platoon in Saigon.

The talented Phi Beta Kappa member plays the organ at four different church services every Sunday morning. He is the organist for the Catholic, General Protestant, Episcopal, and Lutheran churches on the base.

In the Vietnamese American Theatre '70 opera production of "Hansel and Gretel" specialist Moore's musical talents were again tapped. Moore was pianist and assistant to the music director.

Moore's parents, directors of "TEXAS" sent some 90 lollipops to Saigon to decorate the gingerbread house in the show. The Vietnamese children in the "Hansel and Gretel" chorus helped "strike" the set, eating the candy lollipops after the final production. Specialist Moore also called for spirit gum to use in the making of beards for the production; it too "made it in time for the show," Mrs. Moore recalls.

The actor is currently portraying a role in "You Can't Take It With You" which opened at the Saigon Community Theatre Tuesday. The Moores flew a selection of costumes via PAL to their son for the production. Moore plays the xylophone in the show.

WILLIAM A. MOORE, II

Specialist Moore spent some of his time in the field before he was transferred to Saigon to be with the Army's Advisory Team.

"We are grateful that his association with the advisory team offers him more opportunities," Mrs. Moore said, indicating that the Moores were also thankful for a less dangerous assignment for their only son.

Moore will complete his 15-month tour of duty in March. Specialist Moore chose a three-month Vietnamese extension rather than a year's service in the US.

At the University of Michigan, Moore minored in French and was offered a fellowship at the International University Dramatics Center in Nancy, France. His military obligation prevented him from accepting the fellowship.

He may take the fellowship after completing his Army tour next spring. More than likely, however, he will "settle down and go to law school."

"After all, some of the world's greatest drama has taken place in the courtroom."

The Canyon native's address is Sp. 5 William A. Moore; 499-84-7606; Adv. Tm. 44; GIA-DINH Province NLD; APO San Francisco, California; 96243.

Crafts Course Begins Tonight

A series of Craft Lectures and Workshops will begin tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Canyon Community Center sponsored by the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

The first lecture-demonstration, given by Mrs. Terry Martin, will include craft items for Classoom Teachers or Girl Scout Leaders to try, such as felt pins, an egg carton Christmas tree, and several creations of styrofoam.

Mrs. Martin will also feature the making of box purses and a relatively new craft, paper tole. The paper tole is a 3-D effect given to paper then setting the scene behind glass.

The two-hour lecture-demonstration will cost $1.00, to cover building rental.

If enough interest is shown, a crafts workshop on a weekly basis will be started, featuring the crafts of personal interest.

On November 12, the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce plans to offer a craft lecture-demonstration entitled "Needlework Arts," given by Mrs. Dan Parker.

The cost of each instruction will vary with the teacher and topic.

Price Has Surgery At Bethesda Hospital

U. S. Rep. Bob Price entered Bethesda Naval Hospital Oct. 9 thinking of the new farm bill and walked out a week later minus an appendix. . . but thinking of the same farm bill.

John Jameson, Price's legislative counsel, told The Canyon News Tuesday that the congressman had delayed entering the hospital for the operation until "he could vote on the farm bill."

"I took your questions over to the hospital to review with the congressman and he was very interested in what is happening in your area," Jameson said. "He wanted anyone with further questions to be sure and contact his office.

Jameson said the operation did not have any complications and Price was slowly moving back into congressional activity.
